Oh Yes You Can... reach your dreams right from the start, in the perfectly designed Weston. You'll see the difference right away in the spacious Great Room with high vaulted ceilings. Drape greenery from the plant shelves. Arrange your home theater in the perfect location and surround yourself with entertainment. Greet each day in the bright Master Bath with double walk-in closets and lots of shining ceramic tile. Bring your friends over right away for a tropical cookout on the lanai, followed by a toast to the end of the day and friendly conversation... Then tell them the great value of your Weston, and they'll be definitely impressed with your decision. You'll use the third bedroom as your home-office, and as your family grows, it makes the perfect nursery.

Have your morning coffee while you read the newspaper, a quick lunch sandwich, the latest gossip on the phone or a late night snack... the casual times in the day can be shared with your family and friends.

Save one guest room for those friends and relatives who will certainly visit from up north when they learn you have a new home in Florida

Utility is an understatement. It may seem like work, but it will almost be fun in a well organized laundry with room to store all the necessities.
